INTRODUCTION

This is what the Chinese call the 'Ten-Thousand Year Calendar.' It does not actually contain ten-thousand years. 'Ten-thousand' really means 'a great many.' This calendar contains information for 150 years, from 1882 to 2031. It gives the annual, monthly, and daily stem and branch, the annual and monthly flying star, as well as the lunar day of the month. It also gives information about the lunar and solar months, the solstices, equinoxes, and the beginning of the four seasons in the Chinese calendar.

The Ten-Thousand Year Calendar is used for feng shui, Chinese astrology, day selection, and various predictive techniques. Its uses are not described here. If you would like to study these subjects, the American Feng Shui Institute offers classes, both on-line and in our classroom. You can get information at:

In Acrobat Reader, you can look up a certain year by pulling up the search function to search for the year you want to see. This saves scrolling through a large number of years.
